Serving All Stages of the Art

MISSION STATEMENT

Theatre Puget Sound is a trade and service organization founded in 1997 to "promote the spiritual and economic necessity of theatre to the public, and to unify and strengthen the theatre community through programs, resources and services."

TPS is a member-driven organization whose main goals are the nurturing of a healthy and vibrant theatre community, developing strong ties among the region's theatre professionals, raising the visibility of the region's theatre scene on national and international levels, and finding ways to develop new and diverse audiences.

TPS is a consortium of theatres and individual artists in the Puget Sound region. Members include theatres ranging from the Seattle Repertory Theatre, Intiman, and ACT to GREX, Theater Schmeater, ReAct, and Book-It. Members also include actors, directors, designers, stage managers, technicians, and theatre administrative staff. We currently have 1100+ individual members.

BENEFITS OF MEMBERSHIP

The question is not whether you can afford a TPS membership, but whether you can afford to not have a TPS membership!

When you become a TPS member you:

- Gain instant access to over 1,000 Puget Sound Region theatre artists
- Priority scheduling for the UGA
- Join a talent database larger than that of any one area talent agent and visited by local and national producers everyday
- Receive significant discounts on theatre tickets, gym memberships, bus passes (not set yet, but it will be), area restaurants (I'm working on this), and much, much more.
- Strengthen the voice of an organization working diligently to "promote the spiritual and economic necessity of theatre to the public" by creating relationships and partnerships with government, business, media and the community to enhance the importance of the arts in our society.
- Become a 2004 TPS member today and enjoy the benefits of membership for the rest of 2003 free!
